

SAVE THE LAST DANCE FOR ME

A popular song written by Doc Pomus and Mort Shuman, first recorded in 1960 by Ben E. King with The Drifters

You can dance, ev-`ry dance with the one that gives you the eye, let him hold you tight.
You can smile, ev-`ry smile for the one that holds your hand, in the pale moon-light.
Just don't for-get who's tak-ing you home
and in whose arms you're gon-na be —
so dar-lin' - save the last dance for me.

Oh, I know that the music is fine,
like a spark-ling wine, go and have your fun.
Laugh and sing, but while we're a-part
don't give your heart to any-one.
Just don't for-get who's tak-ing you home
and in whose arms you're gon-na be —
so dar-lin' - save the last dance for me.

Ba-by don't you know I love you so?
Can't you feel it when we touch?
I will nev-er, nev-er let you go.
I love you, oh, so much.

You can dance, go and car-ry on `till the night is gone 'till it's time to go.
If he asks if you're all a-lone
can he take you home, you've got to tell him no.
`Cause don't for-get who's tak-ing you home
and in whose arms you're gon-na be —
so dar-lin' - save the last dance for me.

You can dance, go and car-ry on `till the night is gone 'till it's time to go.
If he asks if you're all a-lone
can he take you home, you've got to tell him no.
`Cause don't for-get who's tak-ing you home
and in whose arms you're gon-na be —
so dar-lin' - save the last dance for me.
