

A STAR FELL FROM HEAVEN

Title song by Joseph Schmidt from the 1934 film Ein Stern Fällt Vom Himmel (A star falls from the sky)

When th-e moon is soft-ly beam-ing, and th-e world be-neath is dream-ing, the stars come down from Hea-ven to earth Ev-'r-y star has got a du-ty, to d-e-liv-er love and beau-ty, and fill the love-ly plac-es with mirth

A Star Fell From Hea-ven one beau-ti-ful night, bring-ing me a glimpse of de-light from the skies a-bove
A Star Fell From Hea-ven and showed me the way, how to be con-tent-ed and gay,
for it brought me love

It whis-pered to me 'You are won-der-ful, beau-ti-ful, heav-en-ly, and you are mine dear!'
A Star Fell From Heav-en and soon made me see that you had been waiting for me: how I thank my Star

[16 x Bar Instrumental]

Love i-s like the rar-est pre-sent, makes yo-ur life both sad and plea-sant, and fills your heart with bliss and sur-prise If a-t times you're feel-ing lone-ly, all yo-u have to do is on-ly to send a sil-ent wish to the skies.

A Star Fell From Hea-ven one beau-ti-ful night,
bring-ing me a glimpse of de-light
from the skies a-bove.
A Star Fell From Hea-ven and showed me the way,
how to be con-tent-ed and gay,
for it brought me love

It whis-pered to me 'You are won-der-ful, beau-ti-ful, heav-en-ly, and you are mine dear!'
A Star Fell From Heav-en and soon made me see that you had been waiting for me: how I thank my Star
